HELLO ladies of the Titrangi Ladies Friendship Club. We hope you had a good Christmas and we also hope you have a good and healthy 2018.

Ellen Bennett now has a new phone number 816 8861 and her email:
ellenmbennett@icloud.com.

OUR Speaker today is Carolyn Harris and the title of her talk is Telling Tales. She founded Telling Tales to ensure people's life stories do get told. She began 20 years ago with the first documentation of a client's life story through to the publication of it.

I have tried to get in touch with Fay Packham to see if we have a Mini Speaker but so far have failed. So my apologies to the the Mini Speaker.

It seems a long time since we all met together, but those of us who went to the Christmas lunch had a disappointment en route. We were meant to visit a super craft shop on the way – only to find they had recently moved elsewhere. I know the feeling – it was the same when I discovered my favourite shoe shop had moved from Lynmall to Albany! So we arrived at Soljans Estate Winery. After a welcome and time to chat and buy a drink for those who wanted one.

The buffet lunch was very good: ham carved from the bone, a chicken dish, a lamb dish and many unusual salads. The desserts were varied but were all delicious.

OUR next informal gathering was our annual picnic which was held in Pinesong Bayview Lounge. The food was fantastic. Savouries on one table and sweet things on another. Only one criticism – there was too much food!

Two games were played – one was to dress a bride using newspapers. I think there were four brides and the winning model was Joan Keenan. She looked really lovely. Some people took photos so I hope we will have the opportunity to see them.

The other game we played was a quiz but with a difference, each answer had to be Silver..... eg clue: "a vegetable"; answer: "Silverbeet". This was an easy one but out of 20 questions 14 or 15 was the highest. But I can't remember who won. It certainly wasn't me, I scored a miserable 9.

MARCH meeting is the AGM when a new Committee is formed. There will also be some entertainment but it is difficult to arrange during the holidays.

Fees are now due and the final date is March. Two new visitors/members came to the picnic – their names are Lynne Forester and Jacqui Martin.

Kind regards,

Christine
